Bush and Kerry to Visit Grand Rapids; Protests Planned

In the next week, both President George W. Bush and Democratic candidate Kerry will visit Grand Rapids. Bush will return to Grand Rapids on Friday for the first time he has visited since he was greeted by protests in January of 2001. Full details have not been announced, but Bush is tentatively scheduled to speak in downtown Grand Rapids at an "outdoor event" on the Grand Rapids Community College campus. Kerry will be in town on Monday August 2, although no specifics have been announced.

We urge individuals and groups to begin planning protests and actions in response to the visits. In order to facilitate this, there will be a planning meeting on Tuesday July 27 at 7:00pm in Ah Nab-Awen Park. Ah Nab-Awen Park is located at the Gerald R. Ford Museum in downtown Grand Rapids (map).

If you would like to help advertise the protests, flyers are available for printing in full-sheet and half-sheet sizes.

Questions and requests for further information should be sent to republicrats@ziplip.com. Details and logistical information posted as they are known on mediamouse.org and the Michigan IMC.
